ADOR Providing Relief to Taxpayers across Several Disaster Areas UPDATED Oct. 11, 2016

MONTGOMERY, Sept. 27, 2016 – The Alabama Department of Revenue is providing tax relief to Alabama taxpayers who have been affected in several federally declared disaster areas. The tax relief measures will mirror IRS measures in the same areas.

ADOR is granting extensions to taxpayers affected in federally declared disaster areas for the filing periods and payment deadlines of state income taxes. The extensions for such returns and payments shall mirror the due dates that federal income tax returns are required to be filed in the affected designated disaster areas listed below. Click on the links at the end of each line to read the related IRS announcements:

- Tax Relief for Victims of Severe Storms, Tornadoes, Straight-line Winds and Flooding in Arkansas LINK
- Tax Relief for Victims of Severe Storms and Flooding in Louisiana LINK
