Free Business Privilege and Corporate Shares Tax Seminars Offered

Dothan Area Workshop Set July 13, Wallace State Community College

MONTGOMERY, June 13, 2000—The Alabama Department of Revenue, the Alabama Chapter of the National Association of Tax Practitioners, the Dothan Area Chamber of Commerce, and Wallace Community College will host a free one-day seminar on the state's new business privilege and corporate shares tax law, Thursday, July 13, 2000, at the Wallace State Community College, LPN Building Auditorium in Dothan. The seminar begins at 9 a.m. and concludes at 4:30 p.m. Pre-registration is required due to limited seating.

Participants attending the seminar are eligible to receive up to eight hours of CPE credit as approved by the Alabama State Board of Public Accountancy. Application has also been made for CLE credit by the Alabama State Bar Association.

Seminar registration forms will be available at the Dothan Area Chamber of Commerce, Wallace State Community College Corporate and Continuing Education Department, and the Dothan Department of Revenue Taxpayer Service Center. Individuals having Internet access may also download copies of the registration form from the department's Web site at www.ador.state.al.us, or contact the department at (334) 353-9807 and request registration forms to be mailed.
