Vehicle Tag Renewals, New Tag Purchases Not Affected by DPS Driver License System Conversion

Montgomery—The Alabama Department of Revenue advises that motor vehicle license plate transactions will not be affected by the Department of Public Safety Driver License Division's recently announced database conversion, scheduled from 5 p.m. Friday, April 25, to 8 a.m. Wednesday, April 30.

Vehicle owners who have current, valid driver licenses or non-driver identification cards can renew their motor vehicle registrations or purchase new license plates at their respective county license plate issuing officials' offices.
