Alabama Tax Relief Offered to Florida Hurricane Victims

Montgomery, Ala.—The Alabama Department of Revenue (ADOR) announced today that Alabama tax relief filing measures will be offered to affected individual and business taxpayers located in the Presidential Disaster Areas struck by Hurricane Frances, beginning Sept. 3, 2004, who are unable to file Alabama tax returns and make timely tax payments due to the destruction caused by the storm. The ADOR also announced that State Revenue Commissioner Tom Surtees had issued an amended order lengthening the extension period the ADOR had earlier granted for disaster areas struck by Tropical Storm Bonnie and Hurricane Charley.

Florida residents seeking this relief are asked to contact the following division offices within the Alabama Department of Revenue:

Individual and Corporate Tax Division	(334) 242-1000
Corporate Income Tax	(334) 242-1200
Withholding Tax	(334) 242-1300
Business Privilege Tax	(334) 353-7923
Sales, Use and Business Tax Division	(334) 242-1490

ADOR WEB SITE ADDRESS: www.ador.state.al.us

Relief measures will be handled on a case-by-case basis and are similar to the relief granted by the Internal Revenue Service. For taxpayers affected by Hurricane Frances, the designated period for extensions is Sept. 3, 2004, through Dec. 30, 2004. Late filing and late payment penalties will be waived for a tax return that is due to be filed or a tax that is due to be paid during the period Sept. 3, 2004, through Dec. 30, 2004, provided the return is filed and the tax is paid by Dec. 30, 2004. taxpayers affected by Tropical Storm Bonnie or Hurricane Charley, the designated period for extensions is Aug. 11, 2004, through Dec. 30, 2004. Alabama's tax relief does not include the waiver of interest.

The Hurricane Frances disaster areas identified in ADOR's extension order include the following 42 Florida counties: Alachua, Baker, Bradford, Brevard, Broward, Charlotte, Citrus, Clay, Columbia, DeSoto, Dixie, Duval, Flagler, Gilchrist, Glades, Hardee, Hendry, Hernando, Highlands, Hillsborough, Indian River, Lake, Lee, Levy, Marion, Martin, Miami-Dade, Nassau, Okeechobee, Orange, Osceola, Palm Beach, Pasco, Pinellas, Polk, Putnam, Seminole, St. Johns, St. Lucie, Sumter, Union, and Volusia.

The Tropical Storm Bonnie and Hurricane Charley disaster areas identified in ADOR's extension order include the following 26 Florida counties: Brevard, Charlotte, Collier, DeSoto, Dixie, Duval, Flagler, Glades, Hardee, Hendry, Highlands, Indian River, Lake, Lee, Levy, Manatee, Monroe, Okeechobee, Orange, Osceola, Pasco, Polk, St. Johns, Sarasota, Seminole, and Volusia.

Taxpayers who are eligible for the relief should add the following designations in red ink at the top of any Alabama "paper" returns they file: "Bonnie/Charley" or "Frances." Those taxpayers who file electronic returns should contact the appropriate ADOR division office for instructions on how to qualify for the extension.
