

What's New for 2008?

FORM BIT-V. Taxpayers with a business income tax payment of less than $750 must complete Form BIT-V, Alabama Business Income Tax Voucher to submit business income tax payments (including automatic extension payments) due on the 2008 return. See the "Which Form To Use" section of the Form 20C instructions for additional information for Form BIT-V.

FORM 20-E. Effective for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2008, Form 20-E is no longer required in order to obtain a filing extension for the Alabama Form 20C-C return. An automatic extension of six months is in place to file the Alabama Form 20C-C return.

Although an automatic extension is in place to file the tax return, the full amount of the tax due for a tax year is due, in full, by the original due date of the return. See Automatic Six-month Extension to File the Form 20C-C Return, below.

FORM 2220AL. Alabama Form 2220AL has been developed to allow corporations with relief from the underpaid estimated income tax provisions (See Section 40-18-80.1, Code of Alabama 1975). The new form allows the taxpayer the ability to compute the required Alabama quarterly installments using the optional federal annualization method and the optional federal adjusted seasonal method.

Alabama Form 2220AL mirrors Federal Form 2220 as closely as possible. Form 2220AL should be used by corporations if estimated taxes are computed and paid based on an allowable federal method which reduces the amount of estimated tax required to be paid to the State of Alabama below the amount that would be due using the regular method for computing quarterly installments. See the instructions for Form 2220AL, Underpayment of Estimated Tax, for additional information.

Captive Real Estate Investment Trusts (Captive REITS). Captive REITS are defined in Section 40-18-1, Code of Alabama 1975. When filing an Alabama Form 20C-C return, Captive REITS are required to add to income the amount of the Dividends Paid Deduction. See the Alabama Form 20C instructions for Line 7, Schedule A; Alabama Act Number 2008-543; and, Section 40-18-35, Code of Alabama 1975.

Decoupling from the Federal Economic Stimulus Act of 2008. Act Number 2008-549, passed by the Alabama Legislature during the first 2008 Special Session, decoupled Alabama income tax laws from the bonus depreciation and the additional Section 179 expense provisions of the federal Economic Stimulus Act of 2008. Alabama income tax laws will continue to be tied to the federal depreciation rules without consideration of the changes implemented by the Economic Stimulus Act of 2008. The amount of bonus depreciation and the additional Section 179 expense deduction claimed on the federal return (as allowed by the federal Economic Stimulus Act of 2008) must be added back to Federal Taxable Income on Schedule A of the Alabama Form 20C return. See the instructions for Alabama Form 20C, Schedule A, Line 4.

Automatic Six-month Extension to File the Form 20C-C Return. An automatic extension of six months has been granted to file the Alabama Form 20C-C Return, but the full amount of the tax due for a tax year is due, in full, by the original due date of the return. If the total of the estimated tax payments made for a tax year is less than the amount of tax due for the tax year, then an Automatic Extension Payment in the amount of the tax deficiency is due by the original due date of the return for the tax year.

General Information For Consolidated Filing:

An AAG, Alabama Affiliated Group, may elect to file an Alabama consolidated return. An Alabama consolidated return means an Alabama corporate income tax return filed by or on behalf of the members of an AAG. The election is made by filing Form 20C-CRE (Election to File Consolidated Corporate Income Tax Return). The completed election form must be submitted to the Department on or before the due date, with extensions, for the first taxable year for which the election is applicable. If the common parent (for federal income tax purposes) is not a member of the AAG, the members shall designate to the Department which member of the group shall serve as the AAG's common parent for Alabama. (The parent must be an Alabama nexus group member.) The consolidated election is binding and irrevocable for a period of 120 consecutive months (10 years), beginning with the first month of the taxable year for which the election is made and ending with the conclusion of the taxable year in which the 120th consecutive month expires.

In accordance with §40-18-39, for tax periods beginning January 1, 2002, and after, AAG means a group of corporations, each member of which is subject to tax under §40-18-31 and Public Law 86-272 which are members of an Affiliated Group for Federal purposes and file a Federal Consolidated Corporate Income Tax Return. Each member (including the Alabama designated common parent corporation) shall allocate and apportion their Alabama taxable income and losses separately, using separate apportionment factors and file using the Proforma Form 20C. The sum of the separate company Alabama taxable income amounts (Sum of line 14, of all Proforma Form 20C's) are then brought forward to line 1 of the Alabama Consolidated Corporate Income Tax Return (Form 20C-C) and reported on this single Alabama return for the AAG. Form 20C-C, Consolidated Corporate Income Tax Return, must be filed by all AAG's with a binding consolidated election. All transactions between and among members of the AAG shall be reported on an arms length basis. In addition to the separate company calculation, there may be additional expense items with limitations based on Alabama consolidated taxable income. Credits are not allowed to exceed Alabama consolidated taxable income.

Estimate/Extension/Informational Requirements for AAG's:

All payments made on behalf of or for the AAG are to be paid for and credited to the account of the AAG parent corporation. Any AAG, which has an Alabama income tax liability in the excess of $5,000.00, must pay the estimated tax based on the current year's liability. The first payment is due by the 15th day of the 4th month of the taxable year. The 2nd, 3rd, and 4th payments are due by the 15th day of the 6th, 9th, and 12th months, respectively. If an installment is due on a Saturday, Sunday, or state holiday, payments made on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday are considered made on the due date to the extent the payment is applied against that required installment. Remit estimated tax and automatic extension payments using Form BIT-V, if the payment is less than $750, and/or is mailed to the Department. Payments over $750 must be remitted electronically. Form BIT-V is not required if the payment is made electronically. To obtain Form BIT-V visit our Web site at www.revenue.alabama.gov.

Where To File/Payment of Tax:

The total amount of the AAG's income tax liability for the period is due on or before the unextended due date of the return. If the return is to be filed under extension, any liability due should be remitted no later than the original due date of the return. Payments of $750 or more must be made electronically. Payments less than $750, may be remitted with Form BIT-V. DO NOT MAIL FORM BIT-V IF THE PAYMENT WAS REMITTED ELECTRONICALLY.

ELECTRONIC PAYMENT. §41-1-20 requires electronic payments for all single business tax payments of $750 or more. Substantial penalties will be assessed for noncompliance.

Taxpayers making e-payments via ACH Debit must have a Sign On ID and Access Code to login to the Alabama Department of Revenue (ADOR) Paperless Filing & Payment System. ACH Debit or Credit users should visit our Web site at www.revenue.alabama.gov/eservices.htm for additional information.

Payments Corporation on the internet. To make a payment by e-check go to www.officialpayments.com/echeck. There is no fee for this service. To make a payment by credit card go to www.officialpayments.com. There is a convenience fee for this service. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, the separate return limitation year (SRLY) rules contained in 26 U.S.C. §1502 shall apply."
